

Jeffrey Stein, LPI, BAI, CCDI, V.S.M.

Jeffrey Stein has 30 years of experience in the private investigations, security and loss prevention fields. He is the President / Owner of ELPS Private Detective Agency who provides investigative and security services to attorneys, businesses, the cannabis industry and private citizens. His past positions include Director of Loss Prevention and Security for several large retailers, which, also owned and operated restaurants and cafés, where he was responsible for producing training manuals on security policies and procedures. He has also managed and provided security for bars and restaurants. One of the accounts, his firm currently provides uniformed personnel to is, West Chester Borough, a college town with approximately 34 bars and restaurants. These security services help to prevent quality of life crimes including assaults and other criminal conduct, where the security officers patrol on foot. Stein is also the Director of Security for Agronomed Pharmaceuticals (A provider of premium medicinal cannabis products & medical research) and sits on their Board of Advisors.

Stein has personally conducted over two thousand internal and external integrity and witness interviews during the course of his career in the private sector for both civil and criminal cases. He is a licensed Professional Investigator in both New Jersey and Pennsylvania.